

Michael Sutton BSc (Hons)

Qualifications:

BSc (Hons) Business Analytics

MSc Computer Science with Data Analytics (in progress as of January 2020)

Experience:

Undertaken aviation risk assessments and communications impact assessments for large UK wind farms (2019)

Undertaken railway glint and glare assessments for building developments to address concerns from railway operator (2019)

Completed aviation glint and glare assessments for projects at international airports in South Africa and the United Kingdom (2019)

Coordinated developer projects with international airports and air navigation service providers pertaining to large building developments in the United Kingdom (2019)

Provided planning support for a number of solar developments relating to Dublin Airport (2019)

Undertaken field surveys pertaining to television, radio and mobile telephony reception quality (2019)

Undertaken a range of technical assessments including:

- Aviation
- Solar Reflections
- Technical Mitigations
- Radar
- Television Reception
- Communication Systems

Worked on projects in:

- England
- Republic of Ireland
- Scotland
- Wales
- South Africa

Publications:

Produced news articles and editorials covering various topics including:

- EU Climate Change Strategies
- New kinds of aircraft
- Carbon emissions in the construction industry