

Emma Michaelides

Qualifications:

A-Levels: Mathematics, ICT, German

AS-Levels: Business Management

Company Role:

Emma is Pager Power's finance manager. As such she is the company lead on all financial processes, internal and external.

Emma led the introduction and evolution of the Customer Relationship Management system that underpins Pager Power's project work globally across various sectors.

Emma joined the company in 2008 and continues to provide support and internal training to the growing team.

Company Experience:

Emma is the company lead in the following areas:

- Budgets
- Customer Relationship Management System
- Insurances
- Internal training (finance)

Emma provides support in the following areas in co-ordination with other members of the team:

- Health and safety
- Office management